ORDER DIRECTING PAYMENT OF FEES
OR AMENDED IFP APPLICATION

LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN, United States District Judge:

Plaintiff Jeremia Kuhepa Kaambo brings this action pro se. To proceed with a civil action in this Court, a plaintiff must either pay $402.00 in fees – a $350.00 filing fee plus a $52.00 administrative fee – or, to request authorization to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP), that is, without prepayment of fees, submit a signed IFP application. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1914, 1915.

Plaintiff submitted an IFP application, but he does not fully answer the questions pertaining to his financial situation. (ECF 1.) Plaintiff indicates that he has been unemployed since December 28, 2021, and that when he was employed his gross monthly wages were “$15-70.” (Id. at 1.) In question 3, Plaintiff: (1) indicates that in the past 12 months he has received income from rent payments, interest or dividends, but he fails to provide the source of the money, the amount received, and the amount that he expects to receive; and (2) fails to answer questions about whether he has received any gifts, inheritances, or public benefits. In question 4, Plaintiff indicates that he has “0” in the bank, and his response to questions 5 through 8 about his assets and expenses is “No.” (Id. at 2.) Because Plaintiff fails to supply sufficient information explaining any sources of income and how he pays his expenses, it is unclear whether Plaintiff has sufficient funds to pay the filing fees for this action. The Court is therefore unable to make a ruling on Plaintiff’s IFP application.

Within 30 days of the date of this order, Plaintiff must either pay the $402.00 in fees or submit an amended IFP application. Plaintiff must answer all questions as they pertain to his current financial situation. If Plaintiff submits the amended IFP application, it should be labeled with docket number 22-CV-9447 (LTS), and address the deficiencies indicated above by providing facts to establish that he is unable to pay the filing fees. If the Court grants the amended IFP application, Plaintiff will be permitted to proceed without prepayment of fees. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1).

No summons shall issue at this time. If Plaintiff complies with this order, the case shall be processed in accordance with the procedures of the Clerk's Office. If Plaintiff fails to comply with this order within the time allowed, the action will be dismissed.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore IFP status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. Cf. Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444–45 (1962) (holding that appellant demonstrates good faith when seeking review of a nonfrivolous issue).

SO ORDERED.
